

THE TEA SELECTION AT MIDDLETHORPE HALL & SPA

English Breakfast

A blend of the best quality black teas from the Highlands of East Africa and Ceylon. A brisk, refreshing flavour.

Earl Grey

A blend of fine black tea's from China and the natural oil of bergamot. Excellent served with lemon.

Darjeeling

From Darjeeling in the foothills of the Himalayas. A light golden tea with a subtle, delicate flavour likened to muscatel grapes.

Assam - Indian

From North Eastern India this broken orange pekoe black leaf tea is a rich, strong and full-bodied with a malty taste.

Ceylon Dimbula Moray Estate

Large leaf black tea from Sri Lanka with a light golden, bright colour, and a fine delicate taste.

Decaffeinated

A brisk, refreshing African tea decaffeinated, using a natural carbon dioxide process.

ALLERGENS AND SPECIAL DIETS

If a guest has a food allergy or intolerance, we request that they consult a member of staff before deciding what to eat and placing an order, on every occasion, whilst in the hotel. Whilst we are committed to informing our guests accurately of any allergenic contents in the dishes served here, and also to complying with specific dietary requests, there remains a risk, albeit small, that traces from other dishes may be present in food served here, or on surfaces.

Afternoon Tea is freshly prepared to be enjoyed with-in Middlethorpe Hall and Gardens. For your good health and well-being we do not recommend for food to be taken away and consumed later in your own home.

Lapsang Souchong

Originating from Taiwan. Strong black tea with a distinctive smoky taste, produced by hanging the tea in baskets over smoking wood fire.

Green Tea

An excellent digestive after a meal. The green leaf tea has a light refreshing flavour and is reputed to have ancient healing properties.

China Rose Petal

A black china tea, which is pale and delicate. Layered with rose petals so that the leaves are delicately scented.

Peppermint

Pure peppermint leaves are dried quickly to preserve their refreshing aromatic flavours and so create an incredibly fresh, purifying cup.

Chamomile

Pure Chamomile flowers are collected and air dried to create a soothing and relaxing drink.
