History Wardrobe presents ‘Halfway to Hollywood’ with three-course luncheon

The Two Lucys return to entertain us with sensational styles from the golden age of cinema

From the nostalgia of “Gone with the Wind” to the sassy fashions of Katherine Hepburn, women have long been inspired to recreate the glamour of film stars, hoping to feel halfway to Hollywood themselves through movie-imagined clothes.

£89 per person
Middlethorpe Spa Member £75.65

Friday 7th November 6:30pm
‘Eat Game’ Dinner with Rob Newton, of BASC

We welcome back Rob Newton, of BASC, The British Association for Shooting and Conservation, who will host this special evening with an inspired game dinner menu.

Arrive for 6.30pm for reception drinks and canapés, followed by a special four-course dinner menu created by Head Chef Ashley Binder, where ‘game’ is the star ingredient.

Experience the best of local game in a menu carefully designed for the enjoyment of the ‘converted’ and the ‘non-converted’ game gourmet, with selected wines paired to accompany the menu.

Dress code: Lounge suit.

Young Baggage Productions present
A Three-course Christmas Carol

The perfect pre-Christmas event to bring you into the festive mood.

Join us for a delicious three course dinner created by Head Chef Ashley Binder, with entertainment by Young Baggage Productions.

An evening to remember as Ebenezer Scrooge, the world's most miserable man, is being played by the world's grumpiest actor. As the performance slowly falls apart, one stage manager must struggle against the odds to keep the show on the road, and make sure Christmas isn't ruined..... again.

Dress: Lounge suit.
